

Dickens Day!

Feb 7th at 4:30pm in the Library Conference Room

February 7th is the 200th anniversary of the birth of English author Charles Dickens! Celebrations and public readings of his work are being held all over the world, and we here at the LWIT Learning Commons-Library decided to join in the fun!

Join Jonathan Miller on Tuesday the 7th at 4:30pm in the Library Conference Room for a reading and discussion! He plans to read the first chapter of the novel Great Expectations, but if you have a favorite, feel free to bring it along!
