Student Services Policy Manual

The Student Services policy manual guides the college in the areas of student admission, matriculation, progress to degrees/certificates, academic standards, and completion requirements. The policies in this chapter also address student privacy protection, student conduct, rights, responsibilities, and judicial due process. It is a resource available to all interested in learning how the college functions.

Washington Administrative Code

You will notice WAC throughout the code. That is the reference number for the laws contained within the Washington Administrative Code. You may use that code to research the law. Please note, the code below and the WAC have the same language.

Student Conduct Code

The State of Washington operates Lake Washington Institute of Technology to provide programs of instruction in higher education and related community services. Like any other institution that has its own special purposes, the college must maintain conditions conducive to the effective performance of its functions. Consequently, the college has special expectations regarding the conduct of the participants in the college community.

Admission to the college carries the expectation that students will conduct themselves as responsible college community members. This includes an expectation that students will:

- a. Obey appropriate laws.
- b. Follow college and department rules.
- c. Maintain a high standard of integrity and honesty.

The code of conduct is oriented to LWTech allowing it to manage violations of college rules or conduct that interferes with the operation of college affairs. Use this code to understand your role as a student at LWTech.

Statement of Purpose

Policy Manual Reference: 7.P.45

WAC 495D-121-310

1. The State of Washington operates Lake Washington Institute of Technology to provide programs of instruction in higher education and related community services. Like any other institution that has its own special purposes, the college must maintain conditions conducive to the effective performance of its functions. Consequently, the college has special expectations regarding the conduct of the participants in the college community.
2. Admission to the college carries the expectation that students will conduct themselves as responsible college community members. This includes an expectation that students will:
 - a. Obey appropriate laws.
 - b. Follow college and department rules.
 - c. Maintain a high standard of integrity and honesty.
3. The college will deal with violations of college rules or conduct that interferes with the operation of college affairs. The college may impose sanctions independently of any action taken by civil or criminal authorities. Provisions of this code are subject to change. The college may report misconduct of students enrolled through the high school programs office to the student's parents. The college may report misconduct to any parent who claims the student as a dependent or as otherwise provided by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1972, as amended.

1. The student conduct code shall apply to student conduct that occurs:
 - a. On college premises.
 - b. At or in connection with college sponsored activities.
 - c. Off-campus when, in the judgment of the college, it adversely affects the college community or the pursuit of its objectives.
2. Jurisdiction extends to, but is not limited to, locations in which students engage in official college activities including, but not limited to:

Students are responsible for their conduct from the time of application for admission through the actual receipt of a degree, even though conduct may occur before classes begin or after classes end, and during the academic year and during periods between terms of actual enrollment. These standards shall apply to a student's conduct even if the student withdraws from college while a disciplinary matter is pending. The college has sole discretion, on a case by case basis, to determine whether the student conduct code will be applied to conduct that occurs off-campus.

Definitions

Policy Manual Reference 7.P.49

WAC 495D-121-330

The following definitions apply for purpose of this student conduct code:

1. "Business day" means a weekday, excluding weekends and official college holidays.

3. "Conduct review officer" means the Vice President of Student Services or other college administrator the president designates to have responsibility to receive and review or refer appeals of student disciplinary actions consistent with the procedures of this code. The president can reassign any and all of the conduct review officer's duties or responsibilities as set forth in this chapter as reasonably necessary.
4. "Disciplinary action" means the process by which the student conduct officer imposes discipline against a student for violating the student conduct code.

 - a. Hand delivery of the document to the specified college official or college official's assistant; or
 - b. Sending the document by e-mail and first class mail to the specified college official's office and college e-mail address.

Service is deemed complete upon hand delivery of the document or upon the date the document is e-mailed and deposited in the mail.

10. "Student" includes all persons who take classes at or through the college, whether on a full-time or part-time basis, and whether such classes are credit courses, noncredit courses, online courses, or otherwise. People who withdraw after allegedly violating the code, are not officially enrolled for a particular term but who have a continuing relationship with the college, or who were notified of their acceptance for admission are considered students.

11. "Student conduct committee" means a college committee as described in WAC 495D-121-400.
12. "Student conduct officer" means a college administrator to whom the president or vice-president of student services designates responsibility to implement and enforce the student conduct code. Before taking the action, the disciplining official will notify his or her supervisor and meet or attempt to meet with the student to explain the seriousness of the matter and hear any explanation by the student.

3. During the review, the president shall give each party an opportunity to file written responses explaining their view of the matter and shall make any inquiries necessary to ascertain whether the sanctions should be modified or whether the proceedings should be referred to the student conduct committee for a formal adjudicative hearing.
4. The decision on review must be in writing and must include a brief statement of the reasons for the decision and must be served on the parties within twenty (20) days of the initial decision or of the request for review, whichever is later. The decision on review will contain a notice that judicial review may be available. A request for review may be deemed to have been denied if the president does not make a disposition of the matter within twenty (20) days after the request is submitted.
5. If the president upon review determines that the respondent's conduct may warrant imposition of a disciplinary suspension of more than ten (10) instructional days or expulsion, the matter shall be referred to the student conduct committee for a disciplinary hearing.

4. Upon request filed at least five (5) days before the hearing by any party or at the direction of the committee chair, the parties shall exchange, no later than the third (3rd) day prior to the hearing, lists of potential witnesses and copies of potential exhibits that they reasonably expect to present to the committee. 9. Each party may be accompanied at the hearing by a non-attorney assistant of his/her choice. A respondent may elect to be represented by an attorney at his or her own cost, but will be deemed to have waived that right unless, at least four (4) business days before the hearing, written notice of the attorney's identity and participation is filed with the committee chair with a copy to the student conduct officer. The committee will ordinarily be advised by an assistant attorney general. If the respondent is represented by an attorney, the student conduct officer may also be represented by a second, appropriately screened assistant attorney general.

If any person disrupts the proceedings, the chair may exclude that person from the hearing room.
3. The chair shall cause the hearing to be recorded by a method that he/she selects, in accordance with RCW 34.05.449. That recording, or a copy, shall be made available to any party upon request. The chair shall assure maintenance of the record of the proceeding that is required by RCW 34.05.476, which shall also be available upon request for inspection and copying by any party. Other recording shall also be permitted, in accordance with WAC 10-08-190.
4. The chair shall preside at the hearing and decide procedural questions that arise during the hearing, except as overridden by majority vote of the committee.
5. The student conduct officer (unless represented by an assistant attorney general) shall present the case for imposing disciplinary sanctions.
6. All testimony shall be given under oath or affirmation. Evidence shall be admitted or excluded in accordance with RCW 34.05.452.

2. Within twenty (20) days following the later of the conclusion of the hearing or the committee's receipt of closing arguments, the committee shall issue an initial decision in accordance with RCW 34.05.461 and WAC 10-08-210. The initial decision shall include findings on all material issues of fact and conclusions on all material issues of law, including which, if any, provisions of the student conduct code were violated. Any findings based substantially on the credibility of evidence or the demeanor of witnesses shall be so identified.
3. The committee's initial order shall also include a determination on appropriate discipline, if any. If the matter was referred to the committee by the student conduct officer, the committee shall identify and impose disciplinary sanction(s) or conditions (if any) as authorized in the student code. 4. The committee chair shall cause copies of the initial decision to be served on the parties and their legal counsel of record. The committee chair shall also promptly transmit a copy of the decision and the record of the committee's proceedings to the president.

Policy Manual Reference 7.P.71

WAC 495D-121-440

Failure to file a timely appeal constitutes a waiver of the right and the initial decision shall be deemed final.
2. The notice of appeal must identify the specific findings of fact and/or conclusions of law in the initial decision that are challenged and must contain argument why the appeal should be granted. The president's review shall be restricted to the hearing record made before the student conduct committee and will normally be limited to a review of those issues and arguments raised in the notice of appeal.

The college will normally readmit any student suspended from the college for academic or disciplinary reasons on a space available basis in the students' program of study, when the suspension ends.

1. The college may readmit a student after receiving approval of a written petition submitted to the vice president, or other designated administrator, who imposed such suspension if:
 - a. A student who was suspended believes that circumstances merit reconsideration of the suspension before it ends.
 - b. The student was suspended with conditions imposed for readmission.
2. This petition must state reasons that support a reconsideration of the matter. The vice president's or designee's decision, after reviewing the petition, is final.

Reestablishment of Academic Standing

Policy Manual Reference 7.P.109

WAC 495D-121-640

Students who were dismissed or suspended consistent with disciplinary procedures set forth in WAC 495D-121-340 and WAC 495D-121-600 and whose dismissal, or suspension upon appeal is found unwarranted will have the opportunity to reestablish their academic and student standing to the extent possible within the college's abilities, including an opportunity to retake exams or otherwise complete course offerings missed because of such action.

Campus Speakers

Policy Manual Reference 7.P.111

WAC 495D-121-650

1. Student organizations officially recognized by the college may invite speakers to the campus to address their own membership and other interested students and faculty if:
 - a. Suitable space is available.
 - b. It does not interfere with the college's regularly scheduled programs.

Although allowed by the college, having such speakers on the campus does not imply the college's approval or disapproval of them or their viewpoints. For speakers who are candidates for political office, the college will make equal opportunities available to opposing candidates if they desire.

2. To ensure an atmosphere of open exchange and to not obscure the college's educational objectives, the president or designee, in a case with strong emotional feeling, may set conditions for conducting the meeting, such as requiring:
 - a. A designated member of the college community as chair, or
 - b. Permission for comments and questions from the floor.

The president or designee may encourage the appearance of one or more additional speakers at any meeting or at following meetings so people can express other points of view. The president may designate representatives to recommend conditions such as time, manner, and place for conducting particular meetings.
